OUInfo

An Important Resource for Ontario High School Students
www.ouinfo.ca

Students can find and compare information about Ontario universities, including:

- Programs
- Admission Requirements
- Residence
- Meal Plans
- Scholarships
- Events
- Extenuating Circumstances
- Indigenous Student Resources
- Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

OUInfo is the only resource that is updated directly by the Ontario universities.

On the OUInfo Universities page, students can click "Get Information From Universities" to request information directly from the universities they are interested in.

New in Fall 2024
Easier-to-sort Resources to Help You Prepare for University, and better search functionality.

Know Your Resources: The Undergraduate Application

All applicants to undergraduate programs at Ontario universities should use the Undergraduate application.

Live chat and SMS text support are available in the application.

How a Student's File is Created and Becomes a Completed Application

Ontario High Schools

Grades Held in OUAC's System
Grades sent before a student completes their application will be held and matched once the student submits.

Demographic File
High schools send information on all university-bound students (e.g., academic records, basic demographics).

November Grades
High schools send all first-semester midterm grades for 4U/M courses to the OUAC.

February Grades
High schools send final first-semester grades and current full-year grades to the OUAC.

April Grades
High schools send updated full-year course grades and midterm grades for second semester to the OUAC.

July Grades
High schools send final grades for second semester and full-year courses to the OUAC.

Undergrad Application
Applicants create an OUAC account, complete their application, and receive an OUAC Reference Number.

Completed Application
The applicant pays for their application and the OUAC reviews it.

Grades are auto-matched and appear in the application.

Application Sent
The OUAC sends applications to the universities daily.

Grades Transmitted
The OUAC transmits grades to the universities daily.

Responding to Offers
Applicants can accept, decline or cancel acceptances from their application.

University

Offers of Admission
The universities notify the applicants of offers.
