Its all about Y.O.U.

The mission of the SCSR and GCSR is to expand the awareness of and access to the educational opportunities that exist at Ontario's publicly funded universities.

As a collective, we engage with future students, their supporters, the guidance community and the broader public to showcase our individual institutions as premier destinations in the global postsecondary education marketplace.

As a collective, we engage with future students. their supporters, the guidance community and the broader public to showcase our individual institutions as premier destinations in the global postsecondary education marketplace.

Our expectations of You

Collaboration – We recognize the importance of partnership, and cooperation to achieve mutually beneficial outcomes for both GCSR members and the future students we serve, while respecting the autonomy of each member institution.

Stewardship – We strive to be exceptional stewards of the relationships and resources we are entrusted with by delivering on clear mandates developed through extensive consultation and collaboration with all key stakeholders.

Accessibility – We acknowledge that access to university is not, but should be, equal for every student in Ontario. Our collective will strive to understand and facilitate accessibility in its many forms for as many students as possible.

Inclusion – We embrace our role in removing barriers for anyone and everyone who is seeking postsecondary education in Ontario. Celebrating diversity and championing equality are shared values across all our member institutions and therefore will be reflected in all our collective efforts.
