101 Criteria

Is this the right application for me?
Answer a few short questions to make sure you're applying with the right undergraduate application.

Do you meet all of the following requirements?

- You are taking courses during the day at an Ontario high school (this includes students returning for second semester and graduated students returning to upgrade 1 or more courses).
- You have not, at any point, been out of high school for more than 7 consecutive months.
- You will have received or expect to receive your Ontario Secondary School Diploma (OSSD) with six 4U/M courses at the end of the current year.
- You have not attended a postsecondary institution (college/university/career college).
- You are applying to the first year of an undergraduate degree program or diploma program at an Ontario university.
- You are under 21 years of age.

If yes, complete the 101 application.

Am I responsible for sending my high school midterm grades to the university?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Application Process

No, not usually. In most cases your Ontario secondary school grades are sent directly from your school to the OUAC and then to the universities you have selected. Sometimes, however, problems arise, in which case the university may contact you and ask you to provide secondary school marks. Be sure to provide them as quickly...

At the end of the application I see a warning and/or an error. What do I do?

Applications: Law (OLSAS), Medical (OMSAS), Rehab Sciences (ORPAS), Teacher (TEAS), Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Application Process, During Application

Please read any errors or warnings carefully. If you have a warning, you can proceed with submitting your application. If you have an error, you must correct it before you can submit. Return to the screen mentioned in the error message and correct the error.

Can I defer my acceptance until next year or later?

Applications: Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Offers of Admission

If you are admitted to a university but wish to delay your studies for a year or more, you will need to reach an agreement with the university in question. The university will determine any conditions. When you are ready to attend university, you may be required to re-apply through the OUAC. Contact the university...

Can I withdraw from a program and/or add a new program choice after I submit my application?

Applications: Teacher (TEAS), Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: After Applying

Yes, you can do both by logging in to your online application and going to "Choices/Offers", as long as the deadline has not passed. To withdraw a program, select "Withdraw" in the Actions column beside the program. To add another program, select "Add Program".

Do I require the OSAP link to complete my application?

Applications: Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: OSAP

No, linking to OSAP is an optional step meant to save you time in your OSAP application. You may link your OSAP and OUAC accounts any time after you have submitted your OUAC application.

Does it matter how I number my university or program choices?

Applications: Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Application Process

For the most part, no. Whether you list a university or a specific program as first, second, third or higher on the application is not normally a factor in the universities' admissions decisions. A university must make its policy clear in its own information where there are exceptions to the policy of using the numbered...

I am currently attending an Ontario high school, but I will have fewer than six 4U/M courses finished this year. Should I use the high school application (101)?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Which Application Should I Complete?

If the programs to which you wish to apply stipulate that you must present six 4U/M courses for admission and you will not satisfy this requirement, you should consult your guidance counsellor or the OUAC to determine the appropriate application.

I am currently attending high school, but have attended a postsecondary institution. Which application should I use?

Applications: Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Which Application Should I Complete?

If you are currently enrolled in a day program at a high school but have attended a postsecondary institution, you must apply through the 105 application. You must make arrangements with your high school to forward all of your academic data to the universities you selected.

I am in the process of completing my application and I noticed that none of my grades are displayed under “Current High School Information and Grades”. Should I still complete and submit my application?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Application Process

Yes, you should submit your application. Your high school created an OUAC Account for you, allowing you to apply online, but has not yet added any academic data. You should contact your guidance counsellor to ensure that all of your previously completed and current courses are added to your application for you.

I am taking a summer school course. How will the universities get my marks?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Application Process

Grades from summer school courses are submitted to the OUAC by the summer school or the school board. Verify with your summer school that either they or the school board will be sending the marks directly to the OUAC on your behalf. If this is not the case, you must arrange for an official final…

I will not be attending high school until the second semester. What application should I complete?

Applications: Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Which Application Should I Complete?

You can use the 101 application if you meet the 101 criteria. Note: Some high schools will not create a 101 account for you until you are actually registered with them. Although your application is due at the OUAC in January, applications received after that date will continue to be processed and sent to the...

I'm taking a summer school course and my friend is upgrading (or repeating) a course. Will this affect our admission?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Application Process

If you are taking a summer school course, the delay in the university receiving your summer school results may affect your admission. This is often the case when the program you applied to has limited enrollment. If the summer school course you are completing is your sixth 4U/M course, the universities may not offer you...

If I accept an offer now, can I change my mind at a later date?

Applications: Teacher (TEAS), Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Offers of Admission

Yes. If you accept an offer but later wish to accept a different offer, you will need to first cancel your accepted offer and then accept the new offer by the stipulated deadline date. Be sure to consider all other factors such as scholarships, residence acceptance and deposits before you make your final decision.

Is everyone eligible to have their OUAC and OSAP accounts linked?

Applications: Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: OSAP

No. The ability to link OUAC and OSAP accounts is only available if you applied with the 101 or 105 (undergraduate) application.

Is it worth it?

Applications: Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Other

University study continues to be one of life's most important, rewarding and exciting experiences. The knowledge that you gain at university, the friends that you make and the variety of experiences that you have will be with you all your life. Year after year the employment rate is higher for those with a university degree...

I'm getting a warning about my address when I try to submit my application. Why is this happening?

Applications: Teacher (TEAS), Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Application Process, During Application

You must provide a home address and a mailing address, even if these 2 addresses are the same. A mailing address is the address where you receive postal mail. It is not your email address.

I'm trying to log in but my PIN isn't working. What's the problem?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Before Applying, During Application, Logging in

Be sure you are typing the correct PIN. Double-check the characters and use the Shift key rather than the Caps Lock key to insert capital letters. If you're still having problems, contact your guidance counsellor to make sure you have the correct PIN.

My credit card statement shows "OUAC Guelph". I did not apply to the University of Guelph. Is there a problem?

Applications: Law (OLSAS), Medical (OMSAS), Rehab Sciences (ORPAS), Teacher (TEAS), Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: After Applying, Payment Information

"OUAC Guelph" refers to the Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC). We are located in Guelph, Ontario. The OUAC processes all applications and payments. The specific universities you applied to will not be listed on your credit card invoice.

My current school is wrong in the application. How can I update this information?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Application Process, During Application

If a school you previously attended created your 101 account, you must wait until after you submit your application for your school information to be updated. You cannot update this information yourself. Your new school must advise the OUAC of this change. Once submitted, your guidance counsellor can call us to update your school information....

The university is asking me for my 11-digit OUAC Reference Number. Where do I find this?

Applications: Teacher (TEAS), Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Application Process

Normally, the OUAC Reference Number contains 10 digits, beginning with the current year (4 digits) followed by 6 digits (e.g., 20XX999999). If a university asks for your 11-digit OUAC Reference Number, please add a 0 (zero) at the end of your 10-digit number (e.g., 20XX9999990).

When I accept an offer of admission, does it mean that I will not be considered for any other offers?

Applications: Teacher (TEAS), Undergrad (101), Undergrad (105) Categories: Offers of Admission

Accepting an offer of admission from one university will not cancel your application to other universities. However, you may have only one acceptance on file at a time. Before you can accept a new offer online, you must first cancel the previously accepted offer.

When will the universities let me know if I've been accepted?

Applications: Undergrad (101) Categories: Offers of Admission

Universities will assess your application and will communicate with you directly about your admissibility. In support of your application, your high school provides final grades for your completed Grade 11 and 12 courses to the OUAC. These final grades are forwarded to the universities once you submit your application. In early February, your school provides...

Why do I only see my OUAC personal and address information but not my program choices in my OSAP application?

Privacy Statement

Last updated: July 1, 2020

The Ontario Universities' Application Centre ("OUAC", "we" or "us"), a division of the Council of Ontario Universities (COU), is committed to respecting your privacy. We process applications for admission to Ontario university programs on behalf of the Ontario universities. To apply for admission to an undergraduate university program in Ontario, or to an Ontario medical school, law school, teacher education program, or rehabilitation sciences program, your application is processed through the OUAC. We also process applications for other graduate and professional programs offered by the Ontario universities. The purpose of this Privacy Statement is to inform you about our privacy practices, including how we collect, use and disclose your personal information.

Application-specific Notice and Declaration of Collection, Use and Disclosure of Your Personal Information

Please read the notice and declaration below that applies to your application. These notices provide additional information on our collection, use and disclosure of your personal information, specific to the type of application you prepare and submit.

What Information Do We Collect?

We collect personal information about you in the following ways:

Information You Provide to Us

- We collect the personal information you provide in your application, or in reference to your application.
- We may ask for personal information that you are not required to provide to complete your application. E.g., You may provide personal information in connection with special programs or surveys.
- We collect payment information when you pay (or someone else pays) for your application, except for payment card information.
- We may ask for your personal information when you contact us with a comment or question.

We do not collect payment card information. If you make an online payment using a payment card, such as a credit card or debit card, you are connected directly to our online payment processing service provider and your payment card information is collected and processed by that service provider.

Information We Collect from Third Parties

- We collect personal information about you from other sources, as required, such as your high school, other academic institutions you attended, third-party test score providers and references.

Information We Collect Automatically

- We collect the following information when you visit the OUAC website:
  - your device's Internet Protocol address (e.g., IP 324.45.123.11);
  - your device's operating system and the web browser you use to view the OUAC website;
  - the referring site, if applicable;
  - the pages you visit on the OUAC website; and
  - the date, time and duration of your visit.
- We track your online application activity on the OUAC website using cookies and varied web analytics.

How Do We Use Your Information?

We use your personal information to:

- process your application to Ontario universities and provide other services to you.
- verify and confirm the information in your application.
- maintain and improve the OUAC's application system.
- contact you regarding your application and other services, including by email.
- respond to your inquiries and requests.
- process electronic transcript and test score requests.
- process and respond to any inquiries about your payment.
- create data and aggregated data and reports to be used by us, educational and governmental institutions and researchers.
- conduct research and analysis and to assist others with research.
- protect our systems and the integrity of our auditing process.
- investigate legal claims and enforce our rights and those of the Ontario universities.

We may use your personal information for other purposes we have obtained your consent for and for other purposes as may be permitted or required by applicable law.

Except as otherwise described in this paragraph, we keep current year and historic electronic versions of your application for 7 years, after which it will be destroyed in accordance with our Data Retention and Disposal Policy. At the end of each application cycle, we destroy any supplementary materials (e.g., personal statements, references, etc.) you submit in support of your application. Your information will not be returned, forwarded or copied to you before it is destroyed. If you create an OUAC account but do not submit an application, we will destroy your account and all related personal information (paper or electronic) at the end of the annual application cycle.

How Do We Share Your Information?

We keep your personal information confidential and disclose it only for the purposes described in this Privacy Statement. We share your personal information with the following third parties:

Universities

- We disclose your application information to the Chosen Universities you apply to. The Chosen Universities collect your personal information through the OUAC in accordance with their enabling legislation for the purposes of recruitment, admission and registration. The notices of collection of personal information for each Ontario university can be found on their websites.
- We disclose electronic copies of paper documents to your Chosen Universities, as specified in the application instructions.
- If you apply to a Canadian university outside of Ontario, we disclose your Ontario high school academic data to that university, upon your request.
- We provide your Chosen Universities access to correspondence about your application.
- If you apply to a joint or collaborative university/university or university/college program, we and/or the Chosen Universities you apply to, will disclose your application information to the relevant partner Ontario colleges or universities.

Service Providers

- We may transfer your personal information to third parties in order to process electronic transcript requests and to retrieve test scores. E.g., if you request an Ontario college transcript in support of a university application, we send your personal information to OCAS, which requests Ontario college transcripts on your behalf. We may also request transcripts and test scores on your behalf from other organizations in other jurisdictions in Canada and other countries.
- Where an admission test score is required for your application, we provide your personal information to the test score providers to obtain your test score. These test score providers may be situated in jurisdictions outside of Canada.
- We may transfer your personal information, as required, to third parties who provide services on our behalf, such as hosting, data storage and processing service providers, research and analytics providers and auditors who analyze our systems to ensure that your personal information is protected.
- We share your personal information (or the personal information of the person who pays for your application) with your credit card company, if applicable, in order to obtain payment authorization. We do not retain any credit card information.

Note: Your personal information may be stored and processed in any country where we engage third-party service providers. As a result, your personal information may be transferred outside of Canada to jurisdictions that may have different data protection rules than Canada. While such information is outside of Canada, it is subject to the laws of the country in which it is located, and may be subject to disclosure to the governments, courts or law enforcement or regulatory agencies of said country, pursuant to the laws of such country.

Educational and Governmental Institutions and Researchers

- We may disclose your personal, academic, application, offer, confirmation and registration information to the Ontario universities and to Ontario high school boards for admission, enrollment and other academic policy development and research purposes. The notices of collection can be found on the websites of those institutions.
- We may disclose personal information to the Ministry of Education and/or the Ministry of Colleges and Universities for policy development and research purposes, as outlined in and authorized by the Education Act and the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Act.
- We may disclose your demographic, academic, application, offer, confirmation and registration information to researchers (at the OUAC's discretion) for admission, enrollment and other academic policy development and research purposes.

Additionally, we may use and disclose your information when we believe such use or disclosure is permitted, necessary or appropriate:

- under applicable law;
- to comply with the legal process or other legal obligations, including our obligations under contracts;
- to respond to requests from governmental authorities;
- to protect our operations or those of the universities or other third parties;
- to protect our rights, privacy, safety and property, and those of our affiliates, you and others; and
- to allow us to pursue available remedies or limit the damages that we may sustain, including the collection of debts you may owe us.

We may transfer your personal information and other information to a third party in the event of any reorganization, transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of our operations or assets.

How Do We Protect Your Personal Information?

We maintain administrative, technical and physical safeguards in an effort to protect your personal information against unauthorized access, use, modification and disclosure.

- We restrict access to personal information only to employees and authorized service providers who require the information for the purposes described in this Privacy Statement.
- We store electronic records off-site as part of our disaster recovery procedures. These records remain in Canada.
- We use industry standard security during the transfer of data. All files transferred to or from the OUAC use a Secure Socket Shell (SSH) protocol. Files containing personal information have an additional layer of encryption.
- Our third-party service providers are required to maintain the confidentiality and security of your personal information and to use it only in compliance with applicable privacy laws.

Although we take appropriate measures to safeguard the personal information in our custody and control, we cannot guarantee that your personal information will always be used in ways that are consistent with this Privacy Statement and no method of transmission or storage of information is 100% secure or error-free, so we cannot guarantee absolute security. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer secure (e.g., if you feel that the security of any information you provided to us has been compromised), please contact us immediately.

How Can You Access or Correct Your Personal Information?

During an application cycle, you can access your personal information online and, in most cases, make updates. In cases where you are not able to access your personal information online or make updates, you may submit a written request to review any such personal information about you that we hold and we will provide you with any such personal information to the extent required by law. You may also challenge the accuracy or completeness of your personal information in our records. If you successfully demonstrate that your personal information in our records is inaccurate or incomplete, we will amend the personal information as required.

Third-Party Websites and Services

Our websites provide links to third-party websites relevant to the university application process. This Privacy Statement does not extend to any websites, products or services provided by third parties. These linked websites have separate and independent privacy policies, which we recommend you read carefully.

We have no control over such websites and therefore have no responsibility or liability for the manner in which the organizations that operate such linked websites may collect, use, disclose or otherwise process your personal information.

Changes to This Privacy Statement

This Privacy Statement is current as of the "Last updated" date at the top of this page. We may update this Privacy Statement periodically to reflect changes to our personal information practices. We will post the revised privacy statement on this website. We treat your personal information in accordance with the privacy statement in place at the time of collection of such information, or as you otherwise consent.

How to Contact Us

Contact our Privacy Officer at any time if you:

- have any questions or comments about this Privacy Statement, or about your personal information or our privacy practices;
- wish to access and/or correct the personal information we have in our custody or control; or
- have a complaint about the manner in which we treat your personal information.

101 Notice and Declaration

Notice of Collection, Use and Disclosure of Your Personal Information Provided as Part of Your Ontario University Undergraduate (101) Application

The Ontario Universities' Application Centre ("OUAC", "we", or "us") is a division of the Council of Ontario Universities (COU). We process applications for admission to Ontario university programs on behalf of the Ontario universities. To apply for admission to a university undergraduate program and/or a non-degree-granting program in Ontario, your application must be processed through the OUAC.

We are committed to respecting your privacy. This notice supplements our Privacy Statement and applies when you prepare, complete and submit a 101 Application (for undergraduate applicants currently attending an Ontario high school). Please read our Privacy Statement.

By applying through the OUAC, you authorize us to collect your personal information directly from you and from other organizations, as necessary, to complete and process your application. You also agree that we will disclose to the universities to which you apply (the "Chosen Universities") the personal information you provide to us and other personal information we collect in connection with your application. The Chosen Universities collect your personal information through the OUAC in accordance with their enabling legislation for the purposes of recruitment, admission and registration. Universities may use and disclose your personal information for other purposes in accordance with their own admission and personal information policies and practices. The notices of collection of personal information for each Ontario university can be found on their websites. Please review the policies of your Chosen Universities for further information.

Collection of Personal Information

- We collect the personal information you provide in your application, or in reference to your application, as set out in our Privacy Statement, to process your application for your Chosen Universities.
- We collect your academic information, including your Ontario Education Number (OEN), from your high school and/or school board. We collect this information several times during the application cycle to process your application. A restricted number of school and/or school board officials are authorized to update your high school academic and diploma information that we store at the OUAC.
- We collect information about your status as a Canadian Indigenous person, if you choose to provide it. If you provide this voluntary information, we forward it to your Chosen Universities so they can inform you of specific services available to Canadian Indigenous students.
- We collect information about your status as a first-generation university or college applicant, if you choose to provide it. If you provide this voluntary information, we forward it to your Chosen Universities so they can inform you of specific services available to first-generation students.
- We collect information about your gender from your high school; however, if you choose not to share this information with the universities, you may remove it from your application.
- We collect your registration information from the Ministry of Colleges and Universities (MCU) if you are accepted and then register at an Ontario university.

Use of Personal Information

- We use your personal information to compile and process your application as set out in our Privacy Statement.
- We and/or your Chosen Universities use your email address to communicate with you.
- We use information collected from the MCU on university registration to create data and aggregated data and reports as set out in our Privacy Statement.
- We and/or your Chosen Universities use your date of birth for identification, document matching and statistics. This information does not affect your Chosen Universities' admission decisions.

Disclosure of Personal Information

- We disclose your OUAC access code to your guidance office and/or school board, on a confidential basis, to assist with the application process. The notices of collection of Ontario government institutions can be found on the websites of those institutions.
- We disclose your application information to your guidance office and/or school board to assist in the application process.
- We disclose your personal information, including the personal information in your application, to each of your Chosen Universities. This information includes demographic, academic and university/program choice data and responses to offers, as set out in our Privacy Statement.
- If you intend to apply for the Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP), and provide your authorization and consent specifically for this purpose, we disclose your personal information to the MCU so they can determine your eligibility for financial aid.
- We may disclose your academic information to the Ministry of Education in order to verify your academic record.
- We and/or your Chosen Universities may disclose your personal information to the Ministry of Education to validate or assign an OEN. The notices of collection of Ontario government institutions can be found on the websites of those institutions.
- We and/or your Chosen Universities may notify universities and colleges across Canada and/or regulatory authorities and law enforcement, at our absolute discretion, if you withhold information or submit any information with your application that is determined to be false, misleading or written by a third party, or if it contains evidence of academic dishonesty or inappropriate or unethical conduct.

Applicant's Declaration

You consent to the personal information practices set out in the OUAC Privacy Statement and the Notice of Collection, Use and Disclosure of Your Personal Information Provided as Part of Your Ontario University Undergraduate (101) Application.

You certify the following:

> I certify that the personal information and documents submitted, or to be submitted, in this application, are true, complete and correct, including my declarations of citizenship and immigration status in Canada. I certify that all information requested in this application has been disclosed.
>
> I understand that it is my responsibility to keep the OUAC and the universities where I have applied or registered informed of any changes to the information in my application, and I agree to update my application immediately after any such change occurs.

You also agree that you must:

- Provide all the personal information requested in this application, along with your application fee. Universities will not consider incomplete applications. Universities may require additional personal information and/or submissions to complete your application.
- Keep your access code, OUAC username, password and application reference number confidential and secure. You must notify us immediately if you suspect any unauthorized access to, use or disclosure of this information.

Note: We and the universities reserve the right to verify any information provided as part of your application. If you withhold information or submit any information that is determined to be false, misleading or written by a third party, we and/or the universities may, at our absolute discretion, invalidate the application, resulting in its immediate rejection or in the revocation of an offer of admission or registration at a university.

Help | Are you a First Nations (Status or Non-Status), Métis or Inuit person?

The Indigenous and Treaty rights of First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples are recognized and affirmed in the Constitution Acts of 1867 to 1982 (section 35).

If you identify as a person with First Nations (Status or Non-Status), Métis or Inuit ancestry, you may self-identify by selecting 1 of the following: First Nations, Métis or Inuit. If you do not identify with 1 of these groups or do not wish to declare your status, leave the field blank.

You are not required to provide this information; however, if you do, we will forward it to your chosen universities so they can inform you of specific services available to First Nations, Métis and Inuit students.

Secondary 2021

Help | Current Status in Canada

Status in Canada and Country of Citizenship are mandatory fields. Permanent Residents must also enter their Date of Entry into Canada.

Note: A permanent resident is someone who has been issued a permanent resident visa by the Canadian government and has landed in Canada, but is not a Canadian citizen. Permanent residents are citizens of other countries. A person in Canada temporarily, such as a student, foreign worker or visitor, is not a permanent resident.

Secondary 2021

Help | If not born in Canada, date or expected date of entry into Canada

Full-time study only (Learn about Part-time studies.)

Admission at Queen's is very competitive, so we may use supplemental information, including the Personal Statement of Experience (PSE), Supplementary Essay (SE), audition, and portfolio, where required - as well as your academic record, to help make admission decisions. Please visit the About Applying page for more information.

Queen's considers applicants only for the programs to which they have applied (except where noted). A maximum of one application per program is permitted. Where a list of subjects of major interest is indicated, please specify the desired subject of major interest. If you are interested in more than one subject area, please indicate only the one you are most interested in.

QuARMS - Application Deadline: December 1
Applicants wishing to be considered for the QuARMS pathway must apply to one of:
Arts (QA)
Computing (QD)
Health Science (QH)
Life Science (QL)
Science (QS)
And select the QuARMS pathway as the Subject of Major Interest. More information is available on our website.

Indicate the total number of years in all Ontario secondary schools

Include the total number of years that you have been enrolled in academic studies in all Ontario secondary schools, including the current school year.

Total number of years in a Canadian school system

The number entered should be a total of all years spent in elementary and secondary school within Canada where the language of instruction is English (or French, in the case of Francophone students). It is not necessary to include kindergarten or junior kindergarten years. Include current year.

Total number of years in an English-language school system outside of Canada

The number entered should be a total of all years spent in elementary and secondary school outside of Canada where the language of instruction is English. It is not necessary to include kindergarten or junior kindergarten years. Include current year, if applicable.

Country where you attended an English-speaking secondary school

If you have studied in English outside of Canada, enter the name of the country where you studied. Note: The information you provide here, along with the indication of your First Language, will be used by the universities in order to determine whether additional information on English proficiency will be required to further consider your application.
